

Neighborhood Watch Meeting Minutes
February 6, 2007

Attendance: Councilors Pat Smith and Mark Clark, Mary Clark, Marilee Thome, Roslyn Hamilton, Al Evans, Kelly Marlin, Cathy Sherick, Julie Lofstedt, Pat Anderson, Windy Graham, Jeanett Weese, Julie Kraai, Norma Brooks, James Stolfa, Maurice. Staff: Julie Odell. MCSO: Rod Nuzum and James Eriksen.

Meeting was called to order at 6 p.m.

Rod Nuzum was introduced as the MCSO deputy replacing Paul McRedmond as the NW liaison.

James Eriksen, MCSO, showed a National Geographic presentation on methamphetamine that was shown at the Citizens Police Academy and then answered questions.

Cathy Sherick from the Police Activities League introduced a new East Multnomah County initiative on drug prevention. It is a community coalition called the Greater Gresham Area Prevention Partnership (GGAPP) that includes the three school districts serving Gresham, Troutdale, Fairview, Wood Village and parts of north Clackamas County and unincorporated Multnomah County. She gave a list of meeting times and invited participation.

Julie Odell gave an update on the WalMart Neighborhood Needs grant and asked for committee volunteers to help decide how to distribute the funds.

NEXT MEETING: Tuesday, March 6, 6 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Julie Odell
Asst. to the City Administrator
